CAFE ART

Café Art held its second art exhibition in Brentwood library this summer. Phoenix FM interviewed some of the Café Art attendees. Irene Malvezi, CAFÉ ART's tutor and exhibition organiser, said: "Throughout the years, I have witnessed innumerable situations where participants have changed from being anxious, insecure and avoidant to the art-making process to becoming more relaxed, creative and engaged with the group. It is a joy to see how the art-making process evolves individually and as a group, and how the group enjoy the sessions. Art is a tool for freedom of expression as well as healing. Thank you to the Essex Community Foundation, whose funding made this art exhibition possible." You can hear the whole programme at www.phoenixfm.com by searching "The Arts Programme 133". Our interview begins at 36 minutes and runs for about 14 minutes. ▼

On 7th and 14th December 2022 Crown Café will be serving Christmas dinner as an option at our regular café. The price will be £7.50 for a main course and £2 for cake with custard.

There is no need to pre-book, but orders will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

Crown Café is raising its prices from January 2023

We have held off for as long as possible, but unfortunately the rising cost of food means we have no option but to increase most prices. Crown Café will still represent excellent value for money.

The Gates is selling a range of handcrafted Christmas gifts and decorations, including wreaths, reindeer, trees, candleholders, jams, chutneys and soaps. Please call Mary to place your order.

Mary and Emma from The Gates visited The House of Lords for the Mother of the Commonwealth lunch. The lunch was organised by Zedgeneration CIC to celebrate the life of Queen Elizabeth II. This was an all-embracing event focusing on the impact that environmental issues have on family, community, health, social relationships, education and marginalised groups in society across the Commonwealth. Some good connections were made, and old acquaintances reignited.
