

The Gates gets ready for the Supper Club.....

In preparation for the upcoming summer Dining Experience, the participants show off their wood crafting skills by making a wooden trellis table, from scratch. It's amazing what a bit of ingenuity and a lot of hard team work can achieve. Well done everybody, the table and lanterns look great!

